ROSÈ DI LULÙ

MURGIA ROSATO I.G.P.
PROTECTED GEOGRAPHICAL INDICATION

I chose to dedicate this wine to my daughter Lucia Pia, whom her young cousins affectionately call Lulù. A very old vineyard, located at 700 metres' elevation at the highest point in the Gravina area. A very distinctive terroir, consisting of sandy soils of extremely low fertility; the vines must suffer to survive here, and the yield clusters that are few but extraordinarily rich. Rosé di Lulu, a light pink in appearance, is firmly structured and with an unmistakable personality, one of the iconic wines of Puglia, the region that was first to achieve international success for this difficult to make wine style.
